

Pursuant to the provisions of Article 7 of the Articles of Association of the Zagreb Stock Exchange Inc., Ivana Lučića 2a/22 (hereinafter: Exchange), on 6 August 2014, the Exchange Management Board passed the following

RESOLUTION
on the CROBEX10[®] index

1. General provisions

Article 1

This resolution defines the index name, selection criteria in respect of the index constituents, index base calculation and adjustment method as well as the composition and authority of the Index Committee.

2. Index name

Article 2

- (1) The name of the index is CROBEX10[®].
- (2) CROBEX10^{®1} is the property of the Zagreb Stock Exchange.

3. Selection criteria

Article 3

- (1) Any CROBEX[®] constituents shall be ranked on the basis of two criteria:
 1. their share in the free float market capitalisation
 2. their share in the order book turnover in the course of six months preceding the revision.
- (2) By way of exception from paragraph 1 of this Article, if a proposal for the initiation of pre-bankruptcy settlement procedure is made, or in case of bankruptcy or liquidation proceedings being instigated against the company, shares of that company are not eligible for inclusion into CROBEX10[®] index.
- (3) Each of the criteria from paragraph 1 of this Article shall be given a weighting of 50%, with a mean or a weighted market share to be calculated.

¹ CROBEX10 is registered with the State Intellectual Property Office of the Republic of Croatia under registration number: Z20111707.

- (4) The initial composition of the CROBEX10[®] index shall include 10 stocks with the highest mean.
- (5) By way of exception from paragraph 4 of this Article, the CROBEX10[®] index shall not include shares of the companies in which more than 75% of the equity is owned by a single shareholder.
- (6) In case of the issuers with more than one class of shares which meet the criteria for inclusion in the CROBEX10[®] index, only one class of shares with a higher ranking shall be included.

4. Tolerance zone

Article 4

- (1) In order to ensure the index stability, an 8/12 tolerance zone shall apply in its revision.
- (2) It means that the 8 (eight) top-ranking shares will be admitted to the revised CROBEX10[®] index directly. The 2 (two) remaining constituents will be selected from among the shares ranking 9th to 12th, with precedence given to the constituents of a higher rank in the previous CROBEX10[®] index.

5. Base calculation and adjustment method

Article 5

- (1) The CROBEX10[®] index shall be calculated as a ratio of the free float market capitalisation and the free float market capitalisation on the base date.
- (2) The free float market capitalisation of a particular share shall be calculated as the product of the number of shares in the issue, the free float factor and the last share price.
- (3) The portion of the share's free float market capitalisation in the total market capitalisation of the CROBEX10[®] index on the regular revision date may not exceed 20%.
- (4) If the share is not traded on a particular day, its last price in the previous session shall be used.
- (5) The index shall be calculated continuously in the course of the trading session according to the following formula:

$$I_t^j = \frac{\sum_{i=1}^n p_{i,t}^j \cdot q_{i,T} \cdot f_{i,T}}{K_T \cdot \sum_{i=1}^n p_{i,T} \cdot q_{i,T} \cdot f_{i,T}} \cdot B$$

| | |
|-------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| I_t^j | CROBEX10 [®] index value on day t at time j |
| $p_{i,t}^j$ | last price of share i on day t at time j |
| $q_{i,T}$ | number of shares i in the issue of their portion on revision day T |
| $f_{i,T}$ | free float factor of share i on the last day of the month preceding revision day T |
| B | index base value, set at 1000 on 31 July 2009 |
| $p_{i,T}$ | last price of share i on base date or the date preceding its inclusion in the CROBEX10 [®] (in case of subsequent inclusion) |

K_T index base adjustment coefficient on revision day T

6. Free float

Article 6

The following shall not be deemed free float:

1. the Issuer's own (treasury) shares
2. shares held by the persons controlling 5% or more of the total outstanding in the respective issue, unless shares are held by pension and investment funds.

6.1. Free float factor

Article 7

- (1) In respect of the shares with a free float below 20%, the free float factor shall be determined by rounding up the free float figure to the next integer.
- (2) In respect of the shares with a free float exceeding 20%, the free float factor shall be determined by rounding up the free float figure to the next multiple of 5 (five).

7. Index base adjustment

Article 8

- (1) The CROBEX10[®] index base shall be adjusted if new shares are included in the index or if current constituents are removed from the index and whenever the free float factor changes due to an alteration in the number of shares in the issue of a constituent to ensure the time comparability of the index.
- (2) The CROBEX10[®] index base adjustment coefficient is calculated as follows:

$$K_{T+1} = K_T \cdot \frac{I(T')}{I(T)}$$

$I(T')$ CROBEX10[®] index value after the change on day T

$I(T)$ CROBEX10[®] index value prior to the change on day T

T revision date

8. Index revision

Article 9

The index revision may be regular or extraordinary.

8.1. Regular index revision

Article 10

(1) The CROBEX10[®] index shall be revised after the close of trading on the fourth Friday in March and September, with the revision applying as of the following trading session.

(2) The CROBEX10[®] index shall be revised on the basis of trading data from the six-month period preceding the revision, and any change in the index composition shall be disclosed to the public.

8.2. Extraordinary index revision

Article 11

(1) In case of extraordinary events which may affect the objectivity and credibility of the CROBEX10[®] index occurring between two regular revisions, the Index Committee may conduct an extraordinary revision of the CROBEX10[®] index.

(2) The following events in particular shall be deemed extraordinary:

1. corporate actions,
2. delisting of a particular share,
3. long-term trading suspension in respect of a particular share,
4. proposal for the initiation of pre-bankruptcy settlement procedure, instigation of bankruptcy or liquidation against the company.

(3) When an index constituent is removed in case of events referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, no new share shall be included in the index in the course of extraordinary revision but the index shall continue with fewer constituents than those stipulated in this Resolution.

8.3. Extraordinary events

8.3.1. Stock split

Article 12

(1) Stock split is such a corporate action by which the issuer, pursuant to a resolution passed at the general meeting, without changing the company's equity capital, increases the number of shares outstanding by reducing the nominal value of shares in the initial issue or else increases the number of shares issued without a nominal value by issuing two or more shares to each shareholder instead of one previously held.

(2) The number of shares outstanding in the index shall rise, with their price falling in proportion to the stock split ratio. The index adjustment coefficient shall remain unchanged.

(3) The change referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall apply following a notification by the Central Depository and Clearing Company (hereinafter: CDCC) on the stock split being conducted, after the close of the last trading session in the current number of shares in the issue. The foregoing changes shall become effective in the subsequent trading session (ex-date).

8.3.2. Reverse stock split

Article 13

(1) Reverse stock split is such a corporate action by which the issuer, pursuant to a resolution passed at the general meeting, without changing the company's equity capital, reduces the number of shares outstanding by increasing the nominal value of shares in the initial issue or else reduces the number of shares issued without a nominal value by issuing one share to each shareholder instead of two or more previously held.

(2) The number of shares outstanding in the index shall fall, with their price rising in proportion to the reverse stock split ratio. The index base adjustment coefficient shall remain unchanged.

(3) The change referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall apply following CDCC notification on the reverse stock split being conducted, after the close of the last trading session in the current number of shares in the issue. The foregoing changes shall become effective in the subsequent trading session (ex-date).

8.3.3. Stock dividend

Article 14

(1) Stock dividend is such a corporate action by which the issuer distributes a certain number of newly issued shares to all current shareholders in proportion to their participation in the company's equity capital.

(2) The number of shares outstanding in the index shall rise, with their price falling in proportion to the bonus issue ratio. The index base adjustment coefficient shall remain unchanged.

(3) The change referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall apply following information on general assembly decision, after the close of the last trading session in the current number of shares in the issue. The foregoing changes shall become effective in the subsequent trading session.

(4) If the first day of trading without the right to grant new shares falls before the general meeting passes a resolution on the capital increase, the Index Committee shall remove the respective constituent from the index.

(5) On receipt of information on general assembly decision, the Index Committee shall include previously removed constituent back in the index after the close of trading.

8.3.4. Rights issue

Article 15

(1) Rights issue is such a corporate action by which the issuer offers a certain number of newly issued shares for sale to all current shareholders by issuing subscription rights which are a separate financial instrument.

(2) Once the new share issue is listed on the Exchange, the number of shares outstanding in the index shall rise, provided that the new share issuance exceeds the current number of shares by at least 10%. Otherwise, the number of shares shall be altered in the first subsequent regular index revision.

8.3.5. Capital increase through the public offer

Article 16

- (1) Capital increase through the public offer is such a corporate action by which the issuer offers a public a certain number of newly issued shares for sale.
- (2) Once the new share issue is listed on the Exchange, the number of shares outstanding in the index shall rise, provided that the new share issuance exceeds the current number of shares by at least 10%. Otherwise, the number of shares shall be altered in the first subsequent regular index revision.

8.3.6. Share cancellation

Article 17

- (1) Share cancellation is such a corporate action by which the issuer, pursuant to a resolution passed at the general meeting, cancels a certain number of treasury shares.
- (2) On receipt of information on general assembly decision, the number of shares in the index shall be altered, provided that the number of shares cancelled accounts for at least 10% of shares in the issue. Otherwise, the number of shares in the issue shall be altered in the first subsequent regular index revision.

8.3.7. Squeeze out

Article 18

- (1) Squeeze out is such a corporate action by which, pursuant to a resolution passed at the general meeting, all the shares of minority shareholders are transferred to the majority shareholder against payment of an adequate cash compensation.
- (2) On receipt of information on general assembly decision, the share shall be removed from the index after the close of trading. The foregoing change shall become effective in the subsequent trading session.

8.3.8. Takeover

Article 19

- (1) Company takeover is the takeover of the joint stock company pursuant to the Joint Stock Companies Takeover Act.
- (2) Once the Exchange receives notification of the takeover, depending on its outcome, the Index Committee shall remove the respective share from the index, alter its weighting or keep its weighting.

8.3.9. Acquisition

Article 20

- (1) Company acquisition is such a corporate action by which the target (acquired company) transfers all its assets to the acquiring company in exchange for the shares in the acquiring company so it ceases to exist without going into liquidation.

(2) On receipt of information on general assembly decision, the shares of the acquired company shall be removed from the index.

(3) The shares of the acquiring company shall remain in the index provided that they had been among its constituents before, with their weighting being altered if necessary. Otherwise, the acquiring company's shares shall not be included in the index but their inclusion shall be considered during the next regular index revision.

8.3.10. Merger

Article 21

(1) Company merger is such a corporate action by which the companies being merged transfer all their assets to a new company arising out of the merger (takeover company) so they cease to exist without going into liquidation.

(2) On receipt of information on general assembly decision, the shares of the acquired company or both companies shall be removed from the index.

(3) Otherwise, the takeover company's shares shall not be included in the index but their inclusion shall be considered in the next regular index revision.

8.3.11. Division by separation

Article 22

(1) Division by separation is such a corporate action by which one or more parts of assets of the company being divided are transferred to:

- one or more new companies being established for the purpose of separation (division by formation) or
- one or more companies which already exist (division by acquisition),

where the company being divided does not cease to exist but its equity capital is reduced.

(2) On receipt of information on general assembly decision, the shares of the company being divided may be removed from the index or their weighting may be altered.

8.3.12. Division by split-off

Article 23

(1) Division by split-off is such a corporate action by which one or more parts of assets of the company being divided are transferred to:

- one or more new companies being established for the purpose of split-off (division by formation) or
- one or more companies which already exist (division by acquisition),

where the company being divided ceases to exist without going into liquidation.

(2) On receipt of information on general assembly decision, the shares of the company being divided shall be removed from the index.

(3) The inclusion of shares in the companies arising from the split-off shall be considered in the next regular index revision.

8.3.13. Delisting of a particular share

Article 24

In case of delisting, the respective constituent shall be removed from the index.

8.3.14. Long-term trading suspension in respect of a particular share

Article 25

In case of a trading suspension which exceeds 15 (fifteen) consecutive trading days, at the end of the mentioned period, the Index Committee shall convene a meeting and decide to remove the respective constituent from the index, alter its weighting or keep its weighting.

8.3.15. Instigation of pre-bankruptcy settlement procedure, bankruptcy or liquidation proceedings against the company

Article 26

(1) In case of proposal for the initiation of pre-bankruptcy settlement procedure being made or bankruptcy or liquidation being instigated against the company, the respective constituent shall be removed from the index as soon as the Exchange learns of the occurrence of the said circumstance.

(2) After the pre-bankruptcy settlement is reached, the inclusion of respective constituent shall be considered in the next regular index revision.

8.3.16. Other circumstances

Article 27

In case of corporate actions or events which are not regulated by this Resolution occurring, the Index Committee shall consider the need for extraordinary revision and, if necessary, conduct extraordinary revision to maintain the objectivity and credibility of the index and ensure its time comparability.

8.3.17. Discretionary decision-making

Article 28

In case of the foregoing corporate actions occurring, the Index Committee may decide to conduct an index base adjustment in a manner different from those described above if it believes such an adjustment to be more appropriate to the respective circumstances.

8.3.18. Cash dividend payment and dividend advance

Article 29

Cash dividend payment and dividend advance shall not give rise to the index revision.

8.4. Rapid index inclusion

Article 30

- (1) The Index Committee may conduct an extraordinary revision to add a new share to the index in case that, according to share trading data, the respective share trades on 100% of all trading sessions in the first 30 (thirty) days from its listing, taking account of its market capitalisation and liquidity.
- (2) In the event referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, instead of removing another constituent from the index, it shall include a large number of shares than that stipulated by this Resolution.

8.5. Data correction policy

Article 31

In case of missed dividend or missed corporate action which influences index calculation, the Index Committee will adjust the index accordingly.

9. Index Committee

Article 32

- (1) The Index Committee shall consist of 5 (five) members appointed by the Management Board from among the Exchange staff, one of whom shall act as the Committee chairman.
- (2) The Index Committee shall operate in meetings, of which minutes shall be kept.
- (3) Committee meetings shall be convened by its chairman. Committee meetings may be regular or extraordinary. Regular meetings shall be convened for the purpose of regular index revision. Extraordinary meetings shall be convened upon occurrence of extraordinary events which may affect the objectivity and credibility of the index.
- (4) The Committee shall take its decisions by a majority of the member votes cast.

10. Competence

Article 33

- (1) The Index Committee shall consider and decide on including or excluding shares from the index, altering the weighting of individual constituents, and shall continually monitor and propose ways to improve the index calculation methodology.
- (2) Any other issues related to the index revision and work of the Index Committee shall be regulated by an internal index revision procedure.

11. Disclosure to the public

Article 34

Changes in the composition of the CROBEX10[®] index shall be posted by the Exchange on its web pages.

12. Transitional and final provisions

Article 35

- (1) This Resolution shall enter into force on 13 August 2014.
- (2) By entering into force, this Resolution derogates the Resolution on the CROBEX10[®] index dated 23 August 2013 (OU/2013-196).
- (3) Companies over which the pre-bankruptcy settlement procedure was opened on the day of entering into force of this Resolution or companies over which the proposal for the initiation of pre-bankruptcy settlement procedure was made, bankruptcy or liquidation was being instigated in the period from the day of entering into force of this Resolution till first regular revision, the respective constituent shall be removed from the index on the next regular revision.

Designation: OU/2014-157

Ivana Gažić

President of the Management Board

For delivery to:

1. All Member firms
2. Exchange web pages
3. Croatian Financial Services Supervisory Agency
4. Ledger of Management Board resolutions.